BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.
R. B. BARGER,....Proprietor.
W. W. BROWN,.....Editor.
Terms: $2.00 Per Annum in Advance.

TWENTY thousand majority for Gen. Hartranft is the lowest estimate made by those careful in making up their estimates.

LET every Republican be prepared to do his whole duty in October. Every vote cast for Gen. Hartranft is a vote for Gen. Grant.

THE determination of Mr. Greeley to follow his own advice and "go West," is only paralleled by the folly of the doctor who swallowed his own physic.

O'CONOR informs his friends and admirers that if "compelled to decide" between Grant and Greeley, he would prefer Grant. He thinks the election of Greeley to the presidency would be an irreparable evil to the country.

EX-GOVERNOR POLLOCK was in Harrisburg on Wednesday last, and assured the editor of the Telegraph that in all the sections of the State through which he had traveled, day by day. He feels satisfied that the whole State ticket will be elected by a handsome majority.

HARTRANFT'S majority will astound Forney and his Greeley-Buckalew friends. Our good patriotic old Commonwealth will roll him up 20,000 majority over Buckalew, the sympathizer with treason, and the companion of the infamous Saunders, Thompson and Holcombe.

BUCKALEW, when, during the war, gold was 240 and 250, took a sudden fit of patriotism and voted to pay the soldiers in gold! What sneaking treason is here! There wasn't gold enough in the United States to pay the army once, and he knew it. It was the bank-ruptcy of the nation he was after, not the welfare of the soldier,

THE Philadelphia North American wants, a political solvent for the hour! Something that will unite Jake Thompson and Sumner, Andy Johnson and Greeley; Seymour and McClure; Democrat and Liberal; disinterestedness and selfishness; love and hate, and black and white." The solvent is found only in the anything to beat Grant policy.—Beauregard, Jeff. Davis, Greeley, Saunders, Trumbull, Schurz, Doolittle and McClure are all united in this purpose, and they are so "soluted," that it will be difficult to recognize which was which or who was who after the dissolution of their mongrel party on the 5th of November next.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

It is shown by the monthly debt statement, that the reduction of the public debt, in August, was about ten millions and three quarters, (10,725,636) This is greater, by some twenty-five per cent., than the average, and brings the total reduction, for three years and a half, up to $348,141,299, or about $100,000,000 a year. It is very easy to see that no such payments could have been made, while taxes were being enormously reduced, without the greatest possible fidelity in the collection and disbursement of the revenues. It is not merely the payment of three hundred and fifty millions of the public debt, it is the payment of this amount, together with the abatement of two hundred and seventy-nine millions of taxation, that we cite as incontestable proof of the financial soundness of Gen. Grant's Administration.

A. G. CURTIN.

We clip the following notice from the State Journal Edited by Wien Forney. Gov. Curtin has no better nor truer friend in the State, than Wien Forney, and we are right sure no man knows him better than he. Mr. Forney says:

"Ex-Governor Curtin is to be congratulated on not being allowed by his physician to see the politicians or read the papers which are besieging the door of his chamber and beslobbering him as a man. Well do we remember when the the same papers, while he was strugling in the performance of his duty as chief magistrate, assalied him as a disolute reveller, who was ready at any time to neglect his official duties to take part in a drunken spree; and the writer of this paragraph has penned many a column in vindication of his friend from the foul charges thus made. The libelers of Curtin have now become his lauders. Who has changed? Which of the parties in this historic coincidence have changed their opinions and their habits?

VOTE the whole Republican ticket.

ASSEMBLY.

BELLEFONTE, September 12, 1872.

JOHN G. KURTZ, ESQ.,

Dear Sir:—Having been placed before the people of Centre county as a candidate for the Legislature, you will confer a favor upon a-greater portion of them if you explicitly enunciate your views on the following important public questions:

1st.—What are your sentiments on the subject of Temperance; and in connection therewith, what legislation in addition to that we now have, would you propose to regulate the traffic in intoxicating beverages of every description so as to render more satisfaction and security to all classes of our people—especially to insure to them a safeguard against the growing temptations and evils surrounding our children as minors, so long as this pernicious traffic—sanctioned by law—remains one of the established institutions in our midst?

2nd.—It has been read in the REPUBLICAN that you are opposed to the "Law Library," and as the friends of this institution will press for its reestablishment by law, you will please state what, in your opinion, should be the disposition of all uncollected monies arising from costs and fines—particularly those resulting from the prosecution of parties indicted for violations of the Liquor LAWS of the State?

3rd.—As those most troublesome national questions—abolitionism and negro suffrage are wiped out and beyond controversy, and in their stead allegations of fraud corruption and rascality in Government are supplying the place of the dead issues in the present campaign, it would be satisfaction to the people should you express your sentiments on these points, inasmuch as it is claimed, in an editorial of the Centre Hall paper, that Mr. Orvis would be a terror to the corrupt ringsat Harrisburg.

MANY CITIZENS.

[Mr. Kurtz will reply to the above interogations in the next REPUBLICAN, time and space not permitting in this number.]—ED.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

Our Candidate for Congress Sobieski Ross is most emphatically and in the truest sense of the word a self made man. He was nominated honestly, fairly and unanimously, and while we have no hesitancy in declaring that we would have preferred the nomination of Geo. M. Yocum Esq., we shall now give Mr. Ross our earnest, hearty and most indefatigable support. The Potter County "Journal" speaking of him says;

Our readers will see from the proceedings of the Congressional Conferee Meeting, that Hon. Sobieski Ross has received the nomination of this District for Congress. It is an honor worthily bestowed, and will be responded to with hearty enthusiasm wherever our candidate is known,—and especially will this be the case in this, his native county of Potter. He is wholly a self-made man, as that term is used and understood.

Commencing business very young, with nothing but his brains and his energy to aid him, he has gradually, and without a single step backward, worked himself up to the very highest point of success among the business men of Northern Pennsylvania. He understands what is needed to develop this Congressional District as well as any man in it, and has the tact and energy to accomplishe what he undertakes.

* * * * * * *

We assure every live man in this Congressional District, that Mr. Ross is the right man in the right place.

PROTHONOTARY.

S. A. Brew, has been nominated on the Republican ticket to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Professor Meyer. In a community where Mr. Brew is so well known, it is not necessary for us to say one word in praise or vindication of him. He is a true specimen of an honest man—the true friend of the doctrine of Protection to American industry and of all the interests of the working man. We have only space to say, vote for S. A. Brew, and you will never regret it.

THE Pennsylvania soldiers who suffered in the rebel prisons will be much interested in any explanation that Mr. Buckalew may have to make of the declaration offered by him during the war to the following effect:

"Instead of trying Capt. Wirze, the keeper of the Andersonville prison, I would indict Ben. Butler and Edwin M. Stanton."

LOOK out for electioneering lies on the eve of the election. Ananias although struck dead for lying, was not half so big a liar as the editors of the 'Watchman' and the leaders of the Greeley confederate party.

(Reported for the REPUBLICAN.)

GREELEY DEMOCRATS.

The Greeley Democrats, if we were to use the language of Horace Greeley—"Old Honesty"—we would say, the "Pugilists, blacklegs, thieves, burglars, keepers of dens of prostitution," &c., of this place donned the white hat and cape, and showed themselves in the true light, that of a Wide-Awake lamp, on Friday evening last. Their uniform is an exact imitation of that of the Republicans except the addition of the Greeley hat. They came out of their club room about 7 P. M., with plumes and banners gay, and evidently as proud of a Republican cape and Wide-Awake lamp, as a boy with a new whistle. They didn't seem to feel humiliated in the least, or a bit ashamed of aping and copying after the Republicans whom they consider vile cretures. It was really surprising to see Hoy, Reynolds, the Major "By Gad," D. G. Bush, and Thomas McCafferty, support a most dignified military bearing as they moved along in the procession with slow but measured tread, always out of time with the music: but bent on shaking hands across the bloody chasm. They seemed to wince some times—we suppose they were moved by corruption of conscience, because of their being guilty of stealing Republican thunder, and that their Democratic sanctity was in great danger of being just the least bit tainted by the adoption of the "Most foolish Republican tactics," for the purpose of carrying on a Democratic campaign. At first we did sympathize with them in their terrible strait, but then concluded they looked well, nevertheless, and that the glory of the occasion would fully compensate for the heart rendings they might endure from the effects of a severely goaded conscience. Felix M'Mullen and Jimmy O'Dobbins, also looked well from under a Greeley hat and in the light of a Wide-Awake lamp. In fact the whole company of a hundred looked well; and we here state without fear of successful contradiction, that Democrats never look so well as when they are shaking hands across the bloody chasm; worshiping Horace Greeley, as the Israelites did the golden calf; and as when wearing a REPUBLICAN UNIFORM.

After showing themselves pretty generally to the town, they rested until the train arrived, which was about a half hour behind time, when E. A. Apgar of N. Y., was escorted to the Court House, where the meeting was organized with the utmost despatch, by putting Hoy in the chair, he being the most accustomed to occupying the chair, being President of the Greeley club. Apgar was then introduced, when he begged to be excused from discussing issues concerning our state affairs, as it might appear a little presumptive on his part. Out of consideration for his modesty it was agreed he should be excused. He said he would not want to tell us of a corrupt ring at Harrisburg, &c., lest it might not ring well, coming from a speaker of, and member of the Tammanyite Ring of N. Y. city, the most corrupt in the world. Then he announced the great issue to be Civil Service Reform. He then, in trying to apologize for the origination of the Jacksonian maxim, "To the victor belongs the spoils," and its faithful practice by the Democracy, as long as they were in power, repeated much of Trumbull, more of Schurz and threw in a little of Sumner, no doubt with an idea of lightening the severe pressure now on the latters brain. By this time a large number of his hearers had quietly dug out, and the evening being pretty well spent, he concluded to wind up, and did wind up, much to the satisfaction of all present. The thing then adjourned, and a hearty "Shaking of hands over the bloody chasm" took place, and it was mutually congratulated, that it was a good thing, and that they had fetched them this time. It was a good thing, and we hope they will do it more.

THE Democrats and Liberal Republicans take great delight in heralding the fact that General John F. Hartranft borrowed $7,000 from G. O. Evans. Wherein is the sin in a man doing a commission business transaction such as is done by business men every day? The fact that Hartranft refused to retain this money the moment he discovered that it came from the pockets of a thief is certainly good evidence in his favor.

Remember, that Saturday, September 28th, is the LAST DAY before the October election for REGISTERING VOTERS.

How Buckalew Helps the Sufferers.

THE PROOF AGAINST HIM THE MOST DAMNING.

Gov. Curtin the Witness in Chief.

LOYAL MEN OF PENNSYLVANIA, WILL YOU CONSENT TO HAVE A TRAITOR GOVERNOR OF THE STATE?

How any honest, loyal or patriotic citizen of Pennsylvania can vote for Charles R. Buckalew for Governor of a State he betrayed and denied is a mystery to us. Look at the facts. Are they not sufficient to consign him to everlasting infamy and disgrace.

A terrible conflagration on the 4th of July, 1866, nearly destroyed the city of Portland, Maine. Congress, says the North American, with a proper feeling of commisseration for the sufferers, passed a bill for their relief, which among other things provided for admitting free of duty all contributions sent to them from abroad, and all material to be used in rebuilding the city. But it happened that Portland was in New England, a land specially consecrated to free principles, and for which Buckalew has a special aversion. Hence, Buckalew, being a Senator at the time, opposed the bill, giving as a reason for his opposition that Congress had done nothing for Chambersburg when it was destroyed by the confederate troops under McCausland; and he added the gratuitous remark that this relief was afforded to Portland from sectional feeling, because the calamity happened in New England. Reverdy Johnson, at that time a Democratic member of the Senate from Maryland, repudiated such unworthy suspicions, and asked, "Whose fault was it that the Congress of the United States did not provide for Chambersburg? Did the honorable member ask for an appropriation of that description?" To this BUCKALEW responded, "It would have been laughed at." No Republican Senate would have so treated the suffering of a loyal town. But Buckalew did not want that a Republican Congress should have the opportunity of affording relief, since that would have been so much party capital.

But, in order to show more clearly the character of this Senator, we ask attention to his course upon the bill to reimburse the State of Pennsylvania for military expenses incurred in repelling rebel invasion. These claims had all been carefully collected and put in shape by order of Governor Curtin, and were approved by the national government. The militia had been paid by the State government, at the request of President Lincoln, with the assurance that the State should be reimbursed. When the bill came up in the Senate, in 1866, Buckalew was a member of that body. He was notified by GOVERNOR CURTIN of the day and the VERY HOUR when the bill would be called up, and he was asked to be in his seat and sustain it. Instead of doing so, he left the Senate chamber just before the appointed moment, went into the library and there remained until the time was over. What became of the bill? It was called up by Henry Wilson, Senator from Massachusetts—and now the Republican candidate for the Vice Presidency—and on his motion it was passed.

Mr. Buckalew, in one of his Senatorial speeches, said that he had never swerved in his devotion to his principles. He meant that, being opposed to the war, he had never aided in its prosecution; and in fact he never did. This State claim was for money expended in repelling invasion, and even that Buckalew would not aid by his vote. His heart was with the rebels, and he would not do anything to aid the loyal cause. It made no difference to him that his own State was invaded and ravaged by the enemy. He was not the man to reward those who fought so nobly to repel the invasion.

But why was Buckalew so particular about paying the Chambersburg sufferers, and so determined not to vote for the reimbursement of the State claims, for money paid to the militia? The explanation is quite curious. It seems that among the sufferers at Chambersburg there were disloyal as well as loyal persons. Of this we have proof in the subsequent action of the State Senate after Buckalew had rotated back into that body from the national Senate. The State had already given the sufferers SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, and Buckalew prepared another bill giving them THREE MILLIONS MORE. A resolution was offered that none but loyal persons should receive compensation, and it was voted down by one majority, Buckalew voting against it. The three million scheme was too barefaced even for a Democratic Senate, which body scaled the appropriation and gave three hundred thousand. Here, then, was the secret of Buckalew's sympathy. He was anxious to pay the disloyal sufferers.

ANDREW G. CURTIN.

We should judge by the following from the Philadelphia Press of Saturday, that McClure, who has been running that Buckalew machine, is rather disgusted with Gov. Curtin. He has been trying through the Democratic organs of the State to create the impression that the ex-Governor was a Greeleyite, a Buckalewite, an anythingite to beat Grant. Now, however, he confesses that he is taciturn in the following language: "Governor Curtin's political views are still unknown, although a country paper published a letter from him in acceptance of a Congressional nomination as a definition of them. The Governor has just as great a reputation as Grant himself for taciturnity. In the meantime his health continues to be poor."

With its usual respect for truth the Press says that "a country paper"—observe the fellow's sneer—"published a letter from him (Curtin) in acceptance of a Congressional nomination." The country paper referred to is the Bellefonte Republican which has not sold itself to McClure, Buckalew and Greeley, and it has not published a letter from Governor Curtin "in acceptance of a Congressional nomination." On the contrary, he said to his friends through an amanuensis, "it is impossible for me to accept the honor you propose to confer upon me. My broken health forbids it, and its admonitions I must respect." So much for that distortion of truth.

The Governor's taciturnity is what bothers Forney, McClure and Buckalew. The best thing for all three is probably that he should remain taciturn. It would be a bad day for them truly were he to recover in time to take part in the canvass for Hartranft. His trenchant blows would make all those galled jades wince as they never winced before. The fact that McClure and the Press worry so much about the question, "who will he support" is proof that they are afraid of Andrew G. Curtin. If they will only let him alone and give him a chance to get well, we have no doubt but that he will duly inform them whether he will advocate the election of Hartranft or Buckalew, or Grant or Greeley.—Pittsburg Ditpatch.

THE PROSPECTS.

The Doylestown Intelligencer says Buckalew stock is rapidly declining. The decided results of the elections in Vermont and Maine have loaded the market, and nobody now wants to invest. In these States the Democracy find that they have made a very bad trade. They must have gained some Republicans, but for every one they have lost a Democrat. It is obvious that they could have done better with Presidential candidates taken from their own party. And so it is in Pennsylvania. Buckalew himself has never come out as a Greeley man; nobody knows whether he is for Greeley or O'Conor. It is only certain that he is for Buckalew all the time. From the Western counties of the State we learn that the popular majorities against him will be far greater than has been generally expected. Hartranft is rapidly gaining as Buckalew is losing ground. Experienced politicians already declare that the State is sure for Hartranft, outside of Philadelphia. This opinion finds confirmation in the talk and actions of intelligent Democrats. None of them will now take any bets on Buckalew, on equal terms. And if his prospects are now so poor, what is to become of Greeley? Unless Pennsylvania goes Democratic by 30,000 or 40,000 in October, Greeley's chance is indeed a poor one. The whole campaign on the other side is a hollow sham and fraud, with a faint hope of attaining power as its impelling force.

VOTE for Henry Eckenroth for Register. He is a poor man and a one arm soldier. He gave his arm that the nation might live. He showed by his actions he was ready to sacrifice his life. Vote for him.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE

The conference of the Republican conferees of the 18th Congressional District met at Williamsport at eleven o'clock on the 12th inst. The following conferees were present:

Centre County.—Edmund Blanchard, J. G. Love and E. C. Humes.

Clinton County.—Wm. Fearon, T. C. Hipple and W. C. Kress.

Lycoming County.—Robert M. Foresman, G. W. Lentz and Theodore Hill.

Potter County.—D. C. Larrabee, P. A. Stebbins, Jr., and A. F. Jones.

Tioga County.—John R. Bowen, Hugh Young and J. B. Potter.

Edmund Blanchard was chosen President, and Hugh Young and W. C. Kress Secretaries.

On motion the Conference proceeded to the nomination of a candidate to represent this district in the 43d Congress.

John R. Bowen, of Tioga county, nominated Dr. J. D. Mitchell, of Wellsboro'.

Wm. Fearon, of Clinton county, nominated James Chatham, of Lock Haven.

Theodore Hill, of Lycoming county, nominated H. W. Watson, of Williamsport.

D. C. Larrabee, of Potter county, nominated Sobieski Ross, of Coudersport.

J. G. Love, of Centre county, nominated George M. Yocum of Bellefonte.

On motion, the Conference proceeded to ballot with the following result: J. D. Mitchell, 3; James Catham, 3; Henry W. Watson, 3; Sobieski Ross, 3; and G. W. Yocum, 3, The second, third, fourth and fifth ballots resulted the same. At the conclusion of this ballot, on motion, the members of each county were permitted to present the claims of their respective candidates in five minute speeches.

On motion, the Conference proceeded to take the sixth ballot, which resulted in 3 for each, as before.

After consultation, the Conference adjourned, to meet at 3 p. m.

Conference met at 3 p. m., and proceeded to the seventh ballot, with the same result; 3 for each candidate. On the eighth ballot James Chatham got 6 ballots—the others 3. On the ninth ballot; Mitchell 3; Chatham, 1; Watson, 2; Ross, 4; Yocum, 6. Eleventh ballot: Mitchell, 2; Chatham, 4; Watson, 3; Ross, 4; Yocum, 2.

After a short recess the twelfth ballot was had, when Hon. Sobieski Ross, of Potter, had 12 votes, and James Chatham, of Clinton county, had 3 votes, whereupon Judge Ross was declared nominated as the Republican candidate for Congress, for the Eighteen district.

On motion, the nomination was made unanimous.

EDMUND BLANCHARD, President.

Attest:

HUGH YOUNG, }
W. C. KRESS, } Secretaries.

EXPLANATION OF MR. BLANCHARD.

Mr. Blanchard, on the part of the Centre county delegation, asked leave to make an explanation in regard to the candidacy of Gov. Curtin. Mr. Blanchard stated that some misunderstanding appeared to have arisen in regard to Governor Curtin's willingness to accept the nomination for Congress of this district. He said he had acted in good faith in the matter, and had every reason to believe that the Governor was willing to accept the nominaton, and that he had reasons now to believe he would have accepted, had it not been for the precarious condition of his health, and the positive opinion of his physician, that he must keep his mind from excitement. Mr. Blanchard then exhibited a letter from the Governor and from his physician, which he said would explain the matter more fully, and in doing so he said he was authorized to say positively that this was the only political letter the Governor had written since he arrived home, and all rumors to the contrary were wholly unfounded.

At this point the letter addressed to Gen. Jas. A. Beaver and others, was read to the Convention, when the Convention adjourned with three cheers for our excellent candidate for Congress—Sobieski Ross of Potter county.

THE Press says that they have no doubt but that ex-Governor Curtin will accept the Conglomerate nomination for the Constitutional Convention. The traitors of the Press have no right or authority to speak for Governor Curtin, because Governor Curtin never was yet, nor will we believe for a moment that he ever will turn traitor to his principles, as the Press folks have.

MY DREAM.

BY H. G.

I dream of a beautiful time
When the world shall happy be;
When elephants and hyenas
Shall blossom on every tree,
When tamarinde and potatoes
Shall cease their dredful roar.
When turnip trees shall blossom
In the garden for evermore.

I dream of a great Republic,
Whose people shall all go West,
Sow plums and reap tomatoes
In the land they love the best;
Where pig-iron and molasses
Shall bloom on every hill,
And chickens low in the barnyard,
While gooseberries toil at the mill.

I'm weary of seeking the cabbage
Handle the rake and hoe;
I'm weary of watching and waiting
For the grasshopper bush to grow,
I long for the time when spinach
Shall cope with bread and milk;
When hens shall lay tomatoes
And horses spin raw silk.

Oh sweet were the vanished hours
When I wanderd down the glen,
And wreathed my brow with tomatoes
Or plucked the ripend hen.
When the donkey twined up the trellis,
And the cucumber chirped in the grass,
And the sweet potato whistled
To its mate in the mountain pass.

But gone are the days of childhood,
And manhood's dreams are mine,
Yet I long for the bygone hours
As I sit 'neath this turkey-vine.
Oh, wreathe your blossoms about me,
And soothe my aching breast
While the gooseberry plaintively warbles
And lulls me into rest.

Brewster on Hartranft.

Benjamin Harris Brewster one of Philadelphias most distinguished citizens, spoke to an immence gathering in that city, in vindication of Gen. Hartranft, from the assault of his vile libelers. His speech was a very strong one. Among other things he said:

He came to speak for the gallant General Hartranft, who, with heroic fortitude bore all the abuse that has been heaped upon him without designing to make a reply. He (the speaker) five years ago, was the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, and the first person he had official dealings with was Auditor General Hartranft, and, from the first day he met him until the present time he always entertained the highest respect for him.—The speaker then proceeded to relate a large number of incidents, of the thoroughly upright manner in which Auditor General Hartranft performed his official duties.

In relating these official acts of General Hartranft the speaker said he spoke from actual knowledge. He had been in a position to know General Hartranft and his close knowledge of him made him admire and respect him. Never once did he see General Hartranft walk out of the correct line of a consciencious public official and gentleman. The speaker then proceeded to refute a number of the false charges that have been preferred against General Hartranft, and he completely exposed the false and malicious character of these charges. His (the speaker's) position as Attorney General of the State virtually made him Hartranft's counsel, and if he as Auditor General has committed any wrong acts he (the speaker) must know it, but during his entire official term he never once detected anything wrong in any of Auditor General Hartranft's public acts. As far as General Hartranft was concerned there is no man living who can come forward and substantiate any charges of wrong-doing in office on the part of Auditor General Hartranft.

NOW, THEN, FOR PENNSYLVANIA.

We have won all the skirmishes and carried all the outposts! From this moment every nerve will be strained by the Mules to break this line of disaster, by carrying Pennsylvania in October, for the pie-bald crew running Greeley and Buckalew. Every cent the Democrats can raise, every orator they can send, and every scheme they can devise, will be used to carry our State. We must redouble our exertions! The whole Union looks to us, REPUBLICANS OF PENNSYLVANIA! to complete the destruction of the fraudulent coalition which aims to obtain power by a trick. If we carry our good old State by a rousing majority in October, the battle is won! IF WE ARE BEATEN IN OCTOBER THE GOOD ALREADY ACCOMPLISHED IS LOST! This consideration should nerve every Republican, every patriot, to renewed activity under the inspiring influence of North Carolina, West Virginia, Vermont and Maine! Keep at work! Organize! Let nothing remain undone to cause us regret when the election is over! Victory!—a great victory—awaits us if we deserve it by work, WORK, WORK! Altogether, boys, and "go in!"—[Harrisburg Telegraph.

BACCHUS has drowned more men than Neptune.

EXPECT nothing from him who promises a great deal.

GRIEVING for misfortunes is adding gall to wormwood.

A NOD from a lord is a breakfast for a fool.

What Breaks Down Young Men.

It is a commonly received notion that hard study is the unhealthy element of college life. But from tables of the mortality of Harvard University, collected by Professor Pierce from the last triennial catalogue, it is clearly demonstrated that the excess of deaths for the first ten years after graduation is found in that portion of the class of inferior scholarship. Every one who has seen the curricum knows that where Æschylus and political economy injure one, late hours and rum punches use up a dozen, and the two little fingers are heavier than the loins of Euclid. Dissipation is a sure destroyer, and every young man who follows it is as the early flower exposed to untimely frost. Those who have been inveigled into the path of vice are named Legion. A few hours' sleep each night, high living and plenty of "smashes" make war upon every function of the body. The brains, the heart, the lungs, the liver, the spine, the limbs, the bones, the flesh, every part and faculty are overtasked and weakened by the terrific energy of passion loosened from restraint, until, like a dilapidated mansion, the "earthly house of this tabernacle" falls into ruinous decay. Fast young men, right about.—Scientific American.

WORSE and more of it! Forney, it is now charged, received from the Evans fund the value of fifty thousand dollars, in the form of satisfaction of a mortgage on the Press building, and it is also stated that the information came from Dr. Paine, who imparted it to "two unimpeachable witnesses, ready to be produced when needed." To this charge Col. Forney of course puts in a prompt denial. We were aware of this fact some months ago, but the statement, as it was alleged to have come from Evans himself, was to the effect that Forney gave a mortgage on the Press establishment for the fifty thousand dollars. That makes seventy-two thousands dollars that the Forney family have secured of the Evans ten per cent. on war claims. No wonder Forney is opposed to Hartranft for exposing the corrupt ring of which he was so profitable a member. When Hartranft assumes the Governor's chair, he will appoint an Attorney General who will ferret this Evans business to its foundation.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

GOD SAVE THE COMMONWEALTH.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

In pursuance of an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d day of June, 1869.

NOTICE is hereby given that the General Election will be opened between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock, in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until 7 o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

And in and by the said act I am further directed to give notice "that every person except justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit and trust under the government of the United States, of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative or Executive or Judiciary department of this State, or of any incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress and of select or common council of any city, commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge, or any other officer of any election, shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for."

The inspectors and judge of the elections shall meet at their respective places appointed for holding the election in the district, to which they respectively belong, before seven o'clock in the morning, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; or if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward, or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at such election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of the several assessors of each district to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessments of voters as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freemen of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in the State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers his vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months: Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between twenty-one and twenty-two years, who have resided in an election district as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners, unless first, he produce a receipt for the payment within two years of a State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and gives satisfactory evidence either on his oath or affirmation, or the oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such a tax, or on failure to produce a receipt, shall make oath to the payment thereof. Second, if he claim the right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in this State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him, that he is of age aforesaid, and such other evidence as is required by this act; whereupon the name of the person thus admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax; or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age, shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like notes on the list of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessor, or his right to vote, whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided in the State for one year or more his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided in the district for more than ten days next immediately preceding such election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is in said district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, if required, of the residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward, or district in which he shall reside.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons, on conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for any time not less than three nor more than twelve months; and if it shall be shown to Court, where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person, not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election of this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, if any person knowing the want of such qualification, shall aid or procure such person to vote, the person offending, shall on conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in any term not exceeding three months.

If any one shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or who shall procure another to do so, he or they offending, shall on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for a term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeably to law (except the sons of qualified citizens), shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

REGISTRY LAW.

I also give official notice to the electors of Centre county, that, by an act entitled "An Act further supplemental to the act relative to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved April 17, A. D. 1869, it is provided as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of each of the successors within this Commonwealth, on the first Monday in June of each year, to take up the transcript he has recieved from the county Commissioners under the eight section of the act of fifteenth April, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and proceed to an immediate revision of the same by striking therefrom the name of every person who is known by him to have died or removed since the last previous assessment from the district of which he is the assessor, or whose death or removal from the same shall be made known to him, and add to the same the name of any qualified voter who shall be known by him to have moved into the district since the last previous assessments, of whose removal into the same shall have been made known to him, and also the names of all who shall make claim to him to be qualified voters therein. As soon as the revision is completed he shall visit every dwelling house in his district and make careful inquiry if any person whose name is on his list has died or removed from the district, and if so, to take the same therefrom, or whether any qualified voter resides therein whose name is not on his list, and if so, to add the same thereto; and in all cases where a name is added to the list a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person; and the assessor shall in all cases ascertain, by inquiry, upon what ground the person so assessed claims to be a voter. Upon the completion of the work, it shall be the duty of each assessor as aforesaid to proceed to make out a list in alphabetical order, of the white freemen above twenty-one years of age, claiming to be qualified voters in the ward, borough township or district of which he is the assessor, and opposite each of said names state whether said freeman is or is not a housekeeper; and if he is, the number of its residence, in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also the occupation of the person, and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom, and if working for another, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names the word "voter;" where any person claims to vote by reasons of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he has been for five consecutive years next preceding a voter in said district; and in all cases where the person has been naturalized the name shall be marked with the letter "N;" where the person has merely declared his intentions to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I.;" where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and if a person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter "R" shall be placed opposite the name. It shall be the further duty of each assessor as aforesaid, upon the completion of the duties herein imposed, to make out a separate list of all new assessments made by him, and the amount assessed upon each, and furnish the same immediately to the county commissioners, who shall add the names to the tax duplicate of the ward, borough, township or district in which they have been assessed.

SEC. 2. On the list being completed and the assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observation and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made but as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who, shall prior to the first of August in each year, put one copy thereof on the door or on the house where election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the other in his possession, for the inspection, free of charge of any person resident in the said election district who shall desire to see the same; and it shall be the duty of the said assessor to add from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such applicant, and mark opposite each name "C. N." and immediately assess him with a tax, noting, as in all other cases, his occupation, residence, whether a boarder or housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards; and whether naturalized or designed to be, marking in all such cases the letters opposite the name, "N." or "D. I." as the case may be. If the person claiming to be assessed be naturalized, he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of natualization; and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuing election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention; in all cases where any ward, borough, township or election district is divided into two or more precincts, the assessor shall note in all his assessments the election precinct in which each elector resides and shall make a separate return for each to the county commissioners, in all cases in which a return is required from him by the provisions of this act: and the county commissioners, in making duplicate copies of all such returns shall make duplicate copies of the names of the voters in each precinct, separately and shall furnish the same to the assessor; and the copies required by this act to be placed on the doors of or on election places on or before the first of August in each year, shall be placed on the door of or on the election place in each of said precincts.

SEC. 3. After the assessments have been completed on the tenth day preceding the second Tuesday in October of each year, the assessor shall, on the Monday immediately following, make a return to the county commissioners of the names of all persons assessed by him since the return required to be made by him by the second section of this act, noting opposite each name the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid; and the county commissioners shall thereupon cause the same to be added to the return required by the second section of this act, and a full and correct copy thereof to be made, containing the names of all persons so returned as resident taxables in said ward, borough, township, or precinct, and furnish the same, together with the necessary election blanks, to the officers of the election in said ward, borough, township, or precinct, on or before six o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday in October; and no man shall be permitted to vote at the election on that day whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote, as hereinafter required.

SEC. 4. On the day of election any person whose name is not on the said list, and claiming the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district of which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least ten days next preceeding said election; which witness shall take and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the fact stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter, and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief, where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; that he has resided in the Commonwealth one year, or if formerly a citizen therein, and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceeding said election, that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before said election; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where, and by what court he was naturalized, and shall also produce his certificate of naturalization for examination; the said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affidavit was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affidavit shall state on his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any. but of the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit, that he is a native born citizen of the United States, or if born elsewhere, shall state the fact in his affiant, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization; and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years; that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceeding such election, he shall be allowed to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes; the said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally list, and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the Prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith in the Prothonotary's office, subject to examination, as other election papers are: if the election officers shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, he or they shall be permitted to vote, and the name or names shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers, the word "tax" being added where the claimant to vote on age, the same words being added by the clerks in each case respectively on the lists of persons voting at such election.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such person; whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted on by the election board and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence; every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years consecutively a voter in the district in which he offers his vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted," with the month and year; and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of the same certificate, excepting where sons are entitled to vote by virtue of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, upon so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year; the like punishment shall be inflicted, on conviction, on the officers of election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made, the indorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

SEC. 6. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such person to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offence, to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 7. Ten days preceeding every election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the assessor to attend at the place fixed by the law for holding the election in each election district, and then and there hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the list of assessed voters, and who claim the right to vote; or whose rights have originated since the same was made out, and shall add the names of such persons thereto, as shall show that they are entitled to the right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and forthwith assess them with the proper tax. After completing the list, a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of, or on the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days before the election; and at the election the same course shall be persued, in all respects as is required by this act and the acts to which it is a supplement, at the general elections in October. The assessor shall also make the same returns to the county commissioners of all assessments made by virtue of this section; and the county commissioners shall furnish copies thereof to the election officers in each district, in like manner, in all respects, as is required at the general election in October.

SEC. 8. The same rules and regulations shall apply at every special election, and every seperate city, borough or ward election, in all respects as at the general election in October.

SEC. 9. The respective assessors, inspectors and judges of the elections shall each have the power to administer oaths to any persons claiming the right to be assessed or the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by any of said officers under this act; and any willful false swearing by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers shall be punished as perjury.

SEC. 10. The assessors shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined, as is provided by law for the performance of their other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the second Tuesday in October in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States; any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officers so offending to a fine, on conviction, not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if in session, or if not, a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the county to act as overseers shall be selected from different political parties, where the inspectors belong to different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party; said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election, during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted and the returns made out and signed by the election officers, to keep a list of voters, if they see proper; to challenge any person offering to vote, and interrogate him and his witness under oath, in regard to his right of suffrage at said election, and to examine his papers produced; and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so selected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties; and if said election officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present, and perform their duties as aforesaid, or if they shall be driven away from the polls by violence and intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district may be rejected by any tribunal trying a contest under said election: Provided, That no person signing the petition shall be appointed an overseer.

SEC. 12. If any prothonotary, clerk or the deputy of either, or any person, shall, affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper, or permit the same to be affixed, or give out, or cause or permit the same to be given out in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court, in the presence of some of the judges thereof, according to act of Congress, or shall aid in, connive at, or in any way permit the issue of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; or if any one shall fraudulently use any such certificate of naturalization, knowing that it was fraudulently issued, or shall vote, or attempt to vote thereon, or if any one shall vote or attempt to vote on any certificate of naturalization not issued to him, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; and either or any of the persons, their aiders or abettors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

SEC. 13. Any person who on oath or affirmation, in or before any court of this State, or officer authorized to administer oaths, shall, to procure a certificate of naturalization, for himself or any other person, willfully depose, declare or affirm any matter to be fact, knowing the same to be false, or shall in like manner deny any matter to be fact knowing the same to be true, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and any certificate of naturalization issued in pursuance of any such deposition, declaration or affirmation, shall be null and void; and it shall be the duty of the court issuing the same, upon proof being made before it, that it was fraudulently obtained to take immediate measures for recalling the same for concellation, and any person who shall vote, or attempt to vote, on any paper so obtained, or who shall in any way aid in, connive at, or have any agency whatever in the issue, circulation or use of any fraudulent naturalization certificates, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and upon conviction thereof shall undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, and pay a fine not more than one thousand dollars, for every such offense, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 14. Any assessor, election officer or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act without reasonable or legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and if any assessor shall assess any person as a voter who is not qualified, or shall refuse to assess any one who is qualified, he shall be guilty of misdemeanor in office, and on conviction be punished by fine or imprisonment, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved; and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface or destroy any list of voters made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed, with fraudulent or mischievous intent or for any improper purpose the person so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 15. All elections for city, ward, borough, township and election officers shall hereafter be held on the second Tuesday of October, subject to all provisions of the laws regulating the election of such officers not inconsistent with this act; the persons elected to such offices at that time shall take their places at the expiration of the terms of the persons holding the same at the time of such election; but no election for the office of assessor or assistant assessor shall be held under this act until the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

SEC. 16. At all elections hereafter held under the laws of this Commonwealth, the polls shall be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock, a. m., and closed at seven o'clock, p. m.

SEC. 17. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth to prepare forms for all the blanks made necessary by this act, and furnish copies of the same to the county commissioners of the several counties of the Commonwealth; and the commissioners of each county shall, as soon as may be necessary after receipt of the same, at the proper expense of the county, procure and furnish to all election officers of the election districts of their respective counties copies of such blanks, such quantities as may be rendered necessary for the discharge of their duties under this act.

SEC. 18. That the citizens of this State temporarily in the service of the State or of the United States government, on clerical or other duty, and who do not vote where thus employed, shall not be thereby deprived of the right to vote in their several election districts if otherwise duly qualified.

AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION U. S.

SEC. 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by any State, race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

FIRST AND SECOND SECTION OF THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF MARCH 31, 1870.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all citizens of the United States, who are, or shall be otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people, in any State, Territory, district, county, city parish, township, school district, municipality or other territorial sub-division, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; any Constitution, law, custom, usage or regulation of any State or Territory, or by, or under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, that if by or under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or laws of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qulification for voting, and by such Constitution or law, persons or officers are or shall be charged with the performance of duties in furnishing to citizens an opportunity to perform such prerequisite or to become qualified to vote, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States the same and equal opportunity to perform such prerequisite and to become qualified to vote, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and if any such person or officer shall refuse or knowingly omit to give full effect to this section, he shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby to be recovered by an action on the case, with full costs, and such allowance for counsel fees as the court shall deem just, and shall also, for every such offense, be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and shall on conviction thereof, be fined not less than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one month and not more than one year, or both at the discretion of the court.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Also, I hereby give notice of the following Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following amendment of the Constitution of this Commonwealth be proposed to the people for their adoption pursuant to provisional of the tenth article thereof, to wit:

AMENDMENT.—Strike out the Sixth Section of the Sixth Article of the Constitution, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

A State Treasurer shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State, at such times and for such term of service as shall be prescribed by law.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

At the same time and place, also, an election will be held for delegates to the convention to amend the Constitution of the State, in conformity with the Act, entitled "An Act to provide for calling a convention to amend the Constitution," approved April 11, 1872. As prescribed by said act, the following rules and regulations shall apply to said election, and the returns of the same:

1st. At the general election to be held the second Tuesday of October next, there shall be elected by the qualified electors of this Commonwealth, delegates to a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of this State; the said convention shall consist of one hundred and thirty-three members, to be elected in the manner following: Twenty-eight members thereof shall be elected in the State at large, as follows. Each voter of the State shall vote for not more than fourteen candidates, and the twenty-eight highest in vote shall be declared elected. Ninety-nine delegates shall be appointed to and elected from the different Senatorial districts of the State, three delegates to be elected for each Senator therefrom; and in choosing all district delegates, each voter shall be entitled to a vote for not more than two of the members to be chosen from his district, and the three candidates highest in vote shall be declared elected, except in the county of Allegheny, forming the Twenty-third Senatorial District, where no voter shall vote for more than six candidates, and the nine highest in vote shall be elected, and in the counties of Luzerne, Monroe, and Pike, forming the Thirteenth Senatorial District, where no voter shall vote for more than four candidates, and the six highest in vote shall be elected, and six additional delegates shall be chosen from the city of Philadelphia, by a vote at large in said city, and in their election no voter shall vote for more than three candidates, and the six highest in vote shall be declared elected.

2nd. The Judges and Inspectors for each election district shall provide two suitable boxes for each poll, one in which to deposit the tickets voted for Delegates at large, and the other in which to deposite the tickets voted for District Delegates; which boxes shall be labelled respectively, "Delegates at large" and "District Delegates;" and in each district in the city of Philadelphia an additional box shall be provided for each poll in which to deposit the tickets voted for "City Delegates;" and said last mentioned boxes must each be labelled "City Delegates."

3rd. The said election shall be held and conducted by the proper election officers of the several election districts of the Commonwealth, and shall be governed and regulated in all respects by the general election laws of the Commonwealth, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto, and not inconsistent with the provisions of said act.

4th. The tickets to be voted for members at large of the convention shall have on the outside the words "Delegates at large," and on the inside the names of the candidates to be voted for, not exceeding fourteen in number.

5th. The tickets to be voted for district members of the convention shall have on the outside the words "District Delegates," and on the inside the name or names of the candidates voted for, not exceeding the proper number limited as aforesaid; but any ticket which shall contain a greater number of names than the number for which the voter shall be entitled to vote, shall be rejected; and in case of the delegates to be chosen at large in Philadelphia, the words, "City Delegates," shall be on the outside of the ticket.

6th. In the city of Philadelphia the return judges shall meet at the State House, at ten o'clock on the Thursday next following the election, and make out the returns for said city, of the votes cast therein for delegates at large and city and district delegates, to be members of the convention; the return judges of the several election districts within each county of the State, excluding Philadelphia, shall meet on Friday next following the election, at the usual place for the meeting of the return judges of their county, and make out full and accurate returns for the county, of the votes cast therein for members of the convention and for district members of the same; and the proceedings of the return judges of the said city of Philadelphia, and of the several counties of the Commonwealth, in the making of their returns, shall be the same as those prescribed for return judges in the case of an election for Governor, except that returns transmitted to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, shall be addressed to that officer alone and not to the Speaker of the Senate.

CHANGE IN THE MANNER OF VOTING.

AN ACT regulating the mode of voting at all elections in the several counties of this Commonwealth, approved March 30th, 1866:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in general Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, Borough and special elections, are hereby hereafter required to vote by tickets, written or printed, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified, as follows: One ticket shall embrace the name of all Judges of Courts voted for, and to be labelled outside, "Judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all State officers voted for, labelled, "State;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all County officers voted for, including office of Senator, member and members of Assembly, if voted for, and be labelled, "County;" one ticket shall embrace the name of all Township officers voted for, and be labelled "Township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all Borough officers voted for, and be labelled, "Borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot-boxes.

☞ There will be no "Borough" or "Township" tickets voted at the general election. ☜

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 76th section of the act aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, produce them at a meeting of one judge from each district, at the Court House, in the borough of Bellefonte, on the third day after the election, being for the present year, on Friday, the 11th day of October next, at the hour of 2 o'clock, P. M., then and their to do and perform those duties required by law of said judges. Also, that when a judge, by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of judges, then the certificate or return shall be taken charge of by one of the inspectors, or clerks of the election of said district, who shall do and perform the duties of said judge unable to attend.

Given under my hand and seal, at my office, in Bellefonte, this 4th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and in the ninety-sixth year of the Independence of the United States.

D. W. WOODRING.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN JURUBEBA BLOOD PURIFIER

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but it is a MOST POWERFUL TONIC AND ALTERATIVE, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

DR. WELL'S EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA, retains all the medical virtues peculiar to the plant and must be taken as a permanent curative agent.

IS THERE WANT OF ACTION IN YOUR LIVER & SPLEEN? Unless relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, Blotche, Felons, Pustules, Canker, Pimples, &c., &c.,

Take JURUBEBA to cleanse, purify and restore the vitiated blood to healthy action.

HAVE YOU A DYSPEPTIC STOMACH? Unless digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with loss of vital force, poverty of the Blood, Dropsical Tendency, General Weakness or Lassitude.

Take it to assist Digestion without reaction, it will impart youthful vigor to the weary sufferer.

HAVE YOU WEAKNESS OF THE INTESTINES? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhoea or the dreadful Inflammation of the Bowels.

Take it to allay irritation and ward off tendency to inflammations.

HAVE YOU WEAKNESS OF THE UTERINE OR URINARY ORGANS? You must procure instant relief of you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of malarial, miasmatic or contagious diseases. JOHN Q. KELLOGG, 18 Platt St., New York, Sole Agent for United States. Price One Dollar per Bottle. Send for Circular. 36-4t

THE Charlestown, West Virginia, Journal is a Democratic paper, but it thinks that there is no doubt about the triumph of Republican principles in the State on a vote between Grant and Greeley. The Republicans of the "Old Dominion" feel confident of carrying the State for the national ticket,

VOTE for John I. Thompson, for County Commissioner if you would have your county taxes diminished. Why should our county taxes be SIX MILLS ON THE DOLLAR?

GRANT AND WILSON.

DISTINGUISHED REPRESENTATIVES OF AMERICAN LABOR.

A WORD TO THE WORKINGMEN OF THE NATION.

The Republican party has been the consistent friend of the workingmen of the nation. Its record proves this. It has done more to elevate the laborer than any party since the foundation of the Government. Under its fostering care wages have been advanced, new fields of industry have been opened, and the hours of labor reduced. These facts are matters of record, and cannot be denied.

General Grant is a man of the people; knows their wants, their necessities, their aspirations, and has shown by his consistent course that he is in full sympathy with every effort that has for its object the improvement and elevation of the toiling millions. In one of his messages he said: "The true prosperity and greatness of a nation is to be found in the election and education of its laborers."

Again, he says: "By the late war the industry of one-half of the country had been taken from the control of the capitalists and placed where all labor rightfully belongs—in the keeping of the laborer."

His private sympathies have always been with the workingmen; his official encouragement has been extended to them on every proper occasion. No better evidence of his substantial sympathy could be offered than his approval, June 28, 1868, of the following act:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, and workmen, and mechanics now employed by or on behalf of the Government of the United States; and that all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed."

Some of the officers of the United States tried to evade this law, and required the men under their charge to labor ten hours or submit to a pro rata reduction of wages. Complaint was made to Congress; an explanatory act was passed, and General Grant issued an order to the several departments, calling for a rigid and faithful observance of the eight-hour law. Through his active influence the amounts deducted from the wages of the workmen were refunded to them. Here we have a practical illustration of General Grant's sympathy for the workingman. The example set by the nation in the reduction of the hours of labor has already had a good effect on private enterprise. Thousands of employers have conformed to the eight-hour movement, and before long the example set by the Government will be the basis of labor throughout the Union.

The record of Henry Wilson on the labor question is too well known to need more than a passing notice. For thirty years he has been the champion of the laborer. Actual experience as a workingman has made him alive to their interest. In the Senate, on the platform, or as a private individual, he has been the same consistent friend and advocate of labor. Nearly every public measure that has had for its object the elevation of the toiling masses owes much of its success to his energy and warm-hearted impulses.

Grant and Wilson may therefore be called the true representatives of the workingmen of the nation, and every vote given to them is a vote in support of the nobility of American labor. Every vote cast against them is a vote in support of that system of aristocracy which makes labor the slave of capital, and denies to the workingman the right to equal participation in the fruits which are born of his industry. Horace Greeley sets himself up as a reformer. Can he do more for the reformation of labor than General Grant has already done? We must judge the future by the past. Senator Trumbull has been from the first Mr. Greeley's right-hand man, and would in all probability hold a Cabinet position in case of his election. He has no sympathy for the laboring man; has opposed nearly every effort to advance his interest, and on the 6th of December, 1871, offered the following amendment to a resolution entitled "Joint resolution in relation to pay of laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Government of the United States." We ask the workingman to pay particular attention to the kind of reform that Mr. Trumbull would bring about. Here is the Senator's reform amenument:

"SEC. 2. That the act entitled "An act constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or on behalf of the Government of the United States,' approved June 28, 1868, be, and the same is hereby repealed."

This amendment reflected substantially Mr. Greeley's views on the eight-hour law. Can the workmen of America support a party that acknowledges such men as its leaders? If they can, let them vote for Horace Greeley. If they believe in the oppression of labor, long hours and small pay, let them favor the Liberal movement, for the Trumbull amendment foreshadows the labor policy of Mr. Greeley's administration.

But every workingman who believes in the thorough protection of labor; who believes in the justice of reduced hours of toil in this age of mechanical inventions, and who desires the perpetuation of the generous labor policy inaugurated by the Republican party, will not only vote for but labor zealously for the triumph of those two distinguished representatives of American labor—Ulysses S. Grant and Henry Wilson.

THE UNION LEAGUE OF PHILADELPHIA ENDORSES GENERAL J. F. HARTRANFT.

WHERE IS COL. JNO. W. FORNEY NOW.

HE IS NOT ONLY A D. D. BUT A D. D. D.

HARTRANFTS MAJORITY 25,000 IN THE STATE.

The Union League of Philadelphia has spoken. Its voice will inspire the old fire of patriotism into the hearts of thousands of loyal Pennsylvanians, while it strikes terror to the heart of Jno. W. Forney and many more traitors of the same ilk. The loyal men of the Old Keystone are closing up the ranks preparing for a glorious victory on the second Tuesday of Oct., next. They have determined that Gen. Jno. F. Hartranft, the hero of Fort Steadman shall not suffer martyrdom to please the whims of so selfish and corrupt a man as Jno. W. Forney. The men who saved the nation have determined that so brave and noble a soldier as Gen. Jno. F. Hartranft, so good a citizen in times of peace, and a man notorious for his honesty and integrety of character as an official shall not be so stricken down or sacrificed to make room for Charles R. Buckalew who never cast a vote, nor contributed one dollar to suppress the slaveholders rebellion.

The "tidal wave" in his favor has set in and there can be no mistake about the sharp and decisive endorsement of Gen. Hartranft by the Union League of Philadelphia, and it is unnecessary to say that the gentlemen composing that body have not acted with mere partisan zeal, but have weighed each charge and sifted it thoroughly. Another and most conclusive evidence of the merit of Gen. JNO. F. HARTRANFT, as we learn from the North American, is found in the fact that the merchants of Philadelphia have become aroused to the necessity of expressing their confidence in General Hartranft, and will publicly make their approval by assisting to roll up a majority for him and the whole state ticket of FIFTEEN THOUSAND MAJORITY, on the 2d Tuesday of October next.

The North American is one of the oldest, as it is one of the most reliable papers published in Philadelphia, and it is with a shout, and a loud huzza that we copy the following from that paper dated the 21st inst.,

Last evening, at a full meeting of the National Campaign Committee of the Union League of Philadelphia, to whom that influential body delegated the power to express its sentiments upon the issues of the present canvass, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, By the General Campaign Committee of the Union League of Philadelphia. That now, as during the rebellion, we have implicit confidence in the patriotism, judgment and ability of General Ulysses S. Grant. As the legitimate fruits of his generalship, as well as of his wise and firm Administration, we point, with pride, to a country saved; peace restored and secured; laws faithfully administered; honor maintained; the national debt diminished and diminishing; a reduction of taxation, and all the necessaries of life free from taxation, while protection to American industry is carefully preserved; a great Republic, with political equality of all races and colors—prosperous at home and respected abroad. In recognition of these benefits, the sound patriotism and enlightened judgment of the people guarantee to General Grant a triumphant re-election.

II. Resolved, That in John F. Hartranft, selected by the unanimous voice of the Republican party of Pennsylvania as our candidate for the Chief Magistracy of the State, we recognize the tried, true and faithful citizen, soldier and honest man—the soldier, who sprang to arms to defend an imperilled country, and the honest man, who in every position, private or official, has acquitted himself with honor and fidelity to each trust reposed in him. His calumniators have basely and falsely endeavored to destroy the esteem in which he is held by his fellow-citizens; but the people, who know the man, his unsullied reputation and spotless integrity, will consign his detractors to the obscurity they deserve, when the grand inquest of Pennsylvania shall render its verdict on the second Tuesday of October next.

III. Resolved, That we recognize no half way men in times of great political exigency, and that those who are not with us in the support of the principles we advocate and the standard-bearers regularly selected, are against us, and that we will give to the Republican ticket a united and hearty support.

JAMES H. CAMPBELL, Chairman.
Attest: R. P. GILLINGHAM, Secretary.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17.—The late Rev. Samuel Browne, whose shooting of a German boy in his orchard at Cumminsville some weeks ago created such excitement among the Germans, and whose death occurred at Valley Junction, Ind., last week, has bequeathed the sum of $150,000 for the establishment of a university to bear his name, and also the land whereon to erect a university building and an endowment for professorships.

[For the REPUBLICAN]

THE COUNTY FAIR—A GOOD TIME AND A GREAT TURNOUT OF THE PEOPLE EXPECTED.

The County Fair will commence on the 1st day of October, on the Fair grounds near this place, and will continue four days. At that time we anticipate the pleasure of seeing all of our country cousins and have a friendly shake of the hand with them. The leading questions no doubt will be; how are politics in your respective neighborhoods, or townships? What do you think of the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution of the United States? Does the 15th Amendment not secure the right of suffrage to women? What do you think of woman suffrage? Are you in favor of Gen. Grant or Horace Greeley the old Chappaqua farmer? For Gen. Hartranft or Charles R. Buckalew? Is every body in favor of Levi A. Miller for Sheriff or will a portion of the people refuse to vote for him? If so, why? What reason will you assign?

The candidates for the county offices of both parties will of course be on the ground. All looking pleasant and doing their very best to secure the support of their fellow citizens. All sorts of questions will be asked and of course answered by the wise heads, that assume all the wisdom and who presume to know more about farming or politics than either Horace Greeley or General Grant. There is nothing, you know like being smart, even if it is only for appearance sake. The lords of creation will be expected to answer all the questions, because the women are not suppose to know anything about politics, farming, fruit or cattle—nothing except to cook, wash dishes and sew on a button occasionally for their liege lords.

Well! well! I think, without multiplying words, that we will have a splendid time. The harvest being over, the seed sown for the future harvest, the hard work all done, save and except the threshing and marketing of the grain may we not expect that all of our country paps will hitch up their teams and come te the fair?

Of course they will come, and I would say to them do not forget to bring the big pumpkins, potatoes, corn, wheat, fruit, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, FAT BABIES, &c., for it will be amusing to see the women with their Chignons and Dolly Vardens, go for the babies, the (close-wringers,) sewing machines (the Singer especially,) big chickens, and distinguished men. The men will be particularly interested in labor-saving machinery, fast horses, blooded horses, large hogs, male and female, big steers, fine bucks, the race course, and good grain, while they will all be exceedingly anxious to tell what they know about farming, and the "big beet" Horace Greeley will bring into the United States fair the day after the November election.

The boys will go for the girls, the candy and peanut stands, and other sweet things, and I would here say to the boys, that they had better take care of their hearts. Remember this is leap year and the girls will be very likely to flirt with you, with their handkerchiefs, if not with their hearts and bright eyes.

These county fairs are remarkable for love making and therefore I expect to see a large turn out of the marriageable portion of both sexes. Girls compel your fathers to bring you. Leap year will soon close.

A county fair is also a good place to talk politics, see fine sights and to enjoy yourselves generally.

Do not forget to bring your purses with you, as this is the main part of the programme, and moreover for the reason that all of out merchants have recieved large and splendid assortments of new goods—goods of every style and quality of which they are exceedingly anxious to dispose.

Under such circumstances who can stay away? The fair comes but once a year. Suppose it is not managed exactly to your pleasement? Suppose the managers do send to the city for the printing they could get as cheap at home, never mind that, come to the fair. It is a county institution and is not gotten up in the interest of a company, combination, or corporation.

Come to the fair. Do not hesitate a moment. Be sure to come. It will give you new light on farming and stock raising. It will save money for you, and do you good in many way.

Come to the fair; because it must be made a success or the honor of the county be declared a failure. Do not mind the small, picyune premiums. The object is not to make money; but to benefit the general community, and remember that general community is an important individual. He builds up and he tears down. He not only makes county fairs, recommends tenants, selects good farmers; but he selects, and elects, county officers. Then come to the county fair, exhibit yourselves, if not your stock, grain or fruit, and I will promise you future success if not glory and honor. Respectfully, &c,

S.

IF you want to pay fines for the purpose of purchasing books for the Lawyers, vote for John H. Orvis.

VOTE the entire county ticket; without a scratch.

GRAND RALLY AT MILESBURG.

The Republicans of Milesburg and Boggs township held a grand meeting, on Saturday evening the 21st inst.

It was announced early in the evening that a special train of the B. & S. S. R. R. would be run from Bellefonte, to this place bringing a large delegation. This was good news and convinced us that Centre county was becoming in earnest.

In a short time the shrill whistle of the iron horse was heard and which evidenced the truth of the rumor that the Delegation from Bellefonte was coming. It attracted general attention. The sight was sublime. Nearly two hundred finely equipped Wide-Awakes with two brass bands and one marshal band of music, and the Old Flag proudly unfurled, made their appearance. A finer display was never made in our enterprising town.

After marching through the principal streets, the procession halted in front of J. Brant Hahn's store, where the meeting was organized by electing Wharton Morris, President; Capt. Wm. Levi and a number of other gentlemen were chosen Vice Presidents.

The organization having been completed, Geo. M. Yocum, Esq., was called to the stand who made a strong, argumentative and eloquent speech.—Mr. Yocum was frequently interrupted by vociferous cheers.

Loud calls were then made for Col. W. W. Brown when he made his appearance on the stand. Before he commenced a soul stiring song was sung. After which Col. Brown proposed three cheers for Grant, Wilson, Hartranft and the whole State and County Ticket, which were given with a hearty good will. The Col. then proceeded with his speech. He said he did not come to abuse the Democrats; but rather to pity them. He did pity them because they had been sold out by their leaders in Baltimore. He said that convention had acknowledged by accepting Greeley and his platform, that the Republican party had been in the right for the last twelve years and that the Democratic party although they claimed to number three millions of voters had not a man in their party fit for President, or whose disloyal record would not condemn him before the people. He appealed to history for the truth of what he asserted and to the honest Democrats to strike for their rights and honor themselves and children. He said the action of the Baltimore Convention was not binding upon the rank and file of the Democratic party. The bargain had been made by the leaders, and they would reap the legitimate results. No coalition in politics can succeed. We have not room to give a full outline of the speech. The Col. had frequently to stop on account of the deafening cheers.

At the close of his speech the Col. introduced Capt. A. W. Norris, of Philadelphia, who spoke about fifteen minutes, giving a brief history of the prospects throughout the State and the glorious convention and procession of the Soldiers and Sailors in Pittsburg. Capt. Norris has a good voice is a powerful and eloquent speaker, a fine scholar and perfect gentleman. The meeting adjourned about 10 o'clock.

Respectfully,

W. G.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS.

Gen. Archer, of New York, read the following communication from some Confederate soldiers, at the great meeting in Pittsburg on Wednesday, amid thunders of applause:

To the Soldiers and Sailors in Convention assembled at Pittsburg, September 17, 1872.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 7, 1872.

BROTHERS: We, the undersigned, have fought against you in the late war, through differences of opinion and other causes, and now feel the necessity at this time, of preserving peace and harmony throughout our glorious Republic, and of erasing all differences caused by this late war, which would never have occurred had it not been for the encouragement and promises of assistance held out to us by this lame party who are now striving to renew the old issue, and that Horace Greeley, we have every reason to believe, has been more or less responsible for the many calamities and misfortunes to which our people have suffered. We cannot consistently, though Democrats, abide by the decision of the Baltimore Convention, as we are well aware that that convention had no representatives from our State, that none of our prominent leaders were in sympathy with it, and that we consider that it was under the control entirely of the mercenaries of Horace Greeley, who has been our enemy for the last thirty years. That General Grant's magnanimity to General Lee and the Confederate soldiers, and his efforts and success in making laws to wipe out all differences, and to have happiness and peace restored to us by his wise, just and humane policy, has done much to endear him to us. We feel that in this hour of our Republic's crisis that it is our duty to show the people of the United States that we accept the result of the war, and feel the necessity of showing practically that we are in earnest, and worthy of being called loyal citizens of the United States. That to such as Greeley and Brown who attempt or presume to use us for anything antagonistic to our principles, we desire to state emphatically, that we will not permit it. We but express the sentiments of our people, who feel that in the success of General Grant in the coming campaign, the happiness and prosperity of our people depends, and the safety and integrity of the whole republic is secured. To the Convention we desire to state that our action in the coming campaign will show our loyalty.

Fraternally yours,

GEORGE GOLDEN, Louisiana,

GEORGE W. ROCHE, Georgia,

This is a most glorious political triumph. Republicans of the Keystone State are you ready to follow the example and produce the same glorious result?

SEE that you are registered at least ten days before the election. In elections prior to 1869 this was not required. The Act of Assembly of that year requires that the qualified electors be registered at least ten days before the election. The enrollment lists are now in the hands of the assessors. We would urge upon all Republican voters, the necessity of examining and seeing that they are properly registered in time.

ONE of the jokes most current among the Democrats just now, is that the Liberals are supplying the speakers and the money for the Greeley campaign, while the Buckalewites "don't have to shell out worth a cent." The stamps will not last much longer in Pennsylvania, since Aleck McClure and Forney have their handling. Then what will the Democracy do?

ALL persons attending the Fair should call at Green's and take a parting drink of his celebrated "Arctic Soda", his fountain will be closed next week.

NEW IMPROVED ELIAS HOWE SEWING MACHINE!

THE GREATEST PRODUCTION OF INVENTIVE GENIUS, POINTS OF SUPRIORITY, BEAUTY, CONVENIENCE & DURABILITY. IT WILL LAST A LIFE TIME.

ALL of its wearing parts are made of hardened steel, has no Cog Wheels to Break or Rattle; great adjustability, (self-adjusting take-up) adjustable needle-head, will sew light or heavy goods perfect; makes the nicest hem or fell; will gather and sew on, Cord, Tuck, Braid, Binde, Embroider, or will do any kind of work, even make Crotchet Work Perfect.

This Machine makes the celebrated Lock-stitch—the stitch invented by Mr. Howe—alike on both sides. The shuttle tension is upon the thread as it leaves the shuttle, and not upon the bobbin, as in most machines; and this tension is invariable whether the bobbin be full or nearly empty. It is obtained by turning a screw in the shuttle, and can be changed in a moment, without taking out the work, breaking the thread, or threading through holes.—This Machine is now hung on hinges, and the trouble of taking it from the table to clean and oil obviated.

What we claim, in substance, is, that this is an Honest Machine, and if put in your family, will do any and all of your work perfectly, will last a lifetime, is a willing and ready servant, and is not subject to FITS.

Persons who have tried all machines are unanimous in declaring this to be the easiest learned of any in the market. In the majority of cases customers learn from the instruction book without further aid.

This Machine is now for sale in your county by Traveling Agents. If you are not called on by them, and you want the Best Machine for the amount of money you pay out, please address I. F. PALMER & CO., Bellefonte, Pa., or, Philipsburg, Pa., either of which places you may live nearest to, and your order will receive prompt attention in person.—Our Machines are sold on easy terms—either by monthly installments, or by NOTE, CASH or PRODUCE at Market Prices. A Mississippi River Story.

A couple of flatboat men on the Mississippi river, having made an extraordinary good speculation, concluded that while they were in New Orleans they would go for a first-class dinner at the St. Charles Hotel. Having eaten the meal, they called for their bill. The waiter in attendance misunderstood them, and supposing they wanted the bill of fare, laid it before them, with wine list uppermost.

"Whew, Bill!" said Jerry, "here's a bill! Just look at it! Here, you add up one side and I'll add up the other, and we'll see what the whole thing comes to." So Bill added up the prices of wines on one side of the list and Jerry added them up on the other, and they made the sum total $585.

"Wh—ew, Bill," said Jerry, "that's nigh all we've got! What are we going to do about it?"

"We can't pay that," said Bill; "it 'ud clean us right out. The waiter ain't here now, let's jump out o' the winder and scoot!"

"No, sir-ee," said Jerry; "I'd never do such a mean thing as that. Let's pay the bill and then go down stairs and shoot the landlord."

Working up Beeswax.

[From the Rural New Yorker.]

The old-time practice of the wholesale destruction of a colony of bees when the honey was to be taken, has been considerably reformed in view of the fact that it is poor economy to kill the goose which lays the golden egg; and the wholesale destruction of honey comb has been stopped, as it has been discovered that it is largely economical to supply the old comb to other hives to help young colonies to set up in their housekeeping. Still there will be comb to be made into wax, and it is well to know how to make the most of it.

A pound of common beeswax in the lump is worth, say thirty-five cents, and a pound of bleached wax is worth, in the lump, twice as much. When maple sugar first appears in early spring, you will see it sold in neat little cakes at the rate of seventy-five cents to one dollar a pound, when the price in the lump is twenty-five cents. To with beeswax; take a parcel of salt-cellars and cast little cakes of wax, sixty to the pound, and sell these at five cents a piece. Before casting the cakes of wax, prepare a lot of silk ribbon loops, which will serve to hang the cake of wax by, and as the wax is poured into the moulds, lay the ends of the loop in the edge of the mould so it will stick well in the wax, and you have a neat and salable little article which will fetch very much more than the same material in the lump.

A THRILLING ROMANCE.—CHAPTER I. She stood beside the altar with a wreath of orange buds upon her head—upon her back the richest kind of duds.

Her lover stood beside her, with white kids and dicky clean; the last was twenty-one years old, the first was seventeen.

The parson's job was over, every one had kissed the bride, and wished the young pair happiness, and laughed and danced and cried.

The festive scene was ended, the last words had been said, the happy maid had simmered down, the last gay guest had fled.

CHAPTER II. She stood beside the washtub, with her red hands in the suds, while at her slip-shop feet there lay a pile of dirty duds.

Her man stood beside her, the crossest man alive: he was twenty-nine, and she was twenty-five.

The heavy wash was over, and clothes hung up to dry, and Tom had stuck his finger in the dirty baby's eye.

Tom had been spanked, and supper made upon a crust of bread; and the happy wife and husband went grumbling off to bed.

WORTH KNOWING.—One pound of green copperas, costing seven cents, dissolved in one quart of water, will effectually concentrate and distroy the foulest smells. On board ships and steamboats, about hotels and other public places, there is nothing so nice to purify the air. Simple green copperas, dissolved under the bed in anything that will hold water, will render a hospital, or other place for the sick, free from unpleasant smells. In fish markets, slaughter houses, sinks, and wherever there are offensive putrid gasses, dissolve copperas and sprinkle it about and in a few days the smell will pass a way. If a cat, rat, or mouse dies about the house and sends forth an offensive gas, place some dissolved copperas in an open vessel near the place where the nuisance is, and it will purify the atmosphere.

HARDNESS OF WOODS.—It is a great convenience to know the comparative value of different kinds of wood for fuel. Taking shelbark hickory as the highest standard of our forest trees, and calling that one hundred, other trees will compare with it for real value as follows:

Shelbark Hickory	100	Yellow Oak	60
Pignut Hickory	95	Hard Maple	69
White Oak	84	White Elm	58
White Ash	77	Red Cedar	56
Dogwood	75	Wild Cherry	55
Scrub Oak	73	Yellow Pine	54
White Hazel	72	Chestnut	52
Apple Tree	70	Yellow Poplar	51
Red Oak	69	Butternut	43
White Beach	65	White Birch	43
Black Walnut	65	White Pine	30
Black Birch	62

TO PICKLE TOMATOES.—Slice round ways, a quarter of an inch or so in thickness, and put in layers, sprinkled with salt, twenty-four hours, or over night; then drain thoroughly. To good cider vinegar add a pint bowl of sugar to a quart—more or less to your taste—a teaspoon of cloves, and one of cinnamon, a pepper pod, or the black, put in the tomatoes and bring to a boil. They are ready for use and keep well.—Rural New Yorker.

NEVER SATISFIED.—Give a man the necessaries of life, and he wants the conveniences; give him the conveniences, and he craves for the luxuries; grant him the luxuries, and he sighs for the elegancies; let him have the elegancies, and he yearns for the follies; give him altogether, and he complains that he been cheated both in the price and the quantity of the articles.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS, (or, as medicinally termed, Extracts,) the worthless or inert portsons of the ingredients not being used. Therefore in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons or ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, when they compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others; no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1,50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article! A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients; and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefitted by it, will most certainly be cheated.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at present Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1871.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in case of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON. JAS. THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my own experience of it.
Yours, with respect, JAS. THOMPSON.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1, 1868.

I have found by experience that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a very good tonic, relieving dyspeptic symptoms almost directly.
GEORGE SHARSWOOD

HON. JAS. M. WOOD, Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so weak, as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. PODOPHYLLIN,
Or Substitue for Mercury Pills.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.
The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent Vegetable Cathartic Known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver, and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by Express to any locality, upon application to the PRINCIPAL OFFICE, at the GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, 631 Arch St., Philadelphia.

CHARLES M. EVANS, PROPRIETOR.
Formerly C. M. JACKSON & CO.

Miscellaneous.

VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain longun well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassfull. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

Work! WORK!! WORK!!!

A VERY large and choice selection of Perfumes and Hair Oils has just been received at Green's Drug Store.

J. G. KURTZ has long been a faithful worker in the ranks, now friends let us promote him.

NEW GOODS.—Loeb, May & Loeb, have just received a large lot of new goods. Advertisement next week.

REPUBLICANS remember that Saturday the 28th of Sept. is the last day on which you can get registered.

SOLD OUT the leaders of the Democratic party to Horace Greeley—the old abolitionist, and the Liberal Republicans.

LOST, Tuesday evening, between the residences of Mrs. Boal and Rev. Allen, a ladies white and black straw hat, the finder will be liberal rewarded by leaving it at this office.

GREELEYITES.—The Greeley—confederate procession on last Friday night is said to be, counting in the boys, quite a large affair but after forming in the street, it could not move en route until it was Bushed behind.

USE Pain Cure Oil! Use Pain Cure Oil! Is the popular phrase of everybody that meets a suffering friend. Try it and you won't regret it. Our druggists and merchants sell it for 50 cents per bottle. Sold Wholesole and Retail by F. P. Green, Druggist, Bellefonte Pa.

GET REGISTERED.—Republicans who are not yet registered will please bear in mind that Saturday, September 28th is the last day for attending to that duty. Examine the lists at once, and see if your name is there, as well as that of your neighbor. Do not neglect this important duty.

TICKETS! TICKETS!!—The Republican tickets for Centre county will be ready for distribution in a few days. Our friends from the country, when in town will please call on the Chairman of the County Committee and get the number necessary for their respective election districts;

LARGE STOCK.—Emil Joseph & Bro., those enterprising merchants, have just received one of the largest assortments of fall and winter goods ever brought to this place. They are gentlemanly business men, and persons visiting Bellefonte the week of the fair or at other times should call and see them.

GEO. D. PIFER.—Will expose to public sale on Saturday the 28th of September 1872, the balance of his goods. Consisting of a lot of notions, gloves, trimmings, half a barrel of syrup, one large Register Stove, &c. &c., This is the last opportunity, and we would advise our friends to call around. Sale at his late residence the stone house on Allegheny street commencing at two o'clock p. m.

THE Republican Executive Committee, met in Bellefonte, Sept. 19th. Jno. T. Johnston, Chairman, S. D. Gray, Secretary.

Henry Meyer, Esq., who had been nominated by our County Convention, as a candidate for the office of Prothonotary, having declined his resignation was accepted.

Austin S. Brew, of Bellefonte, was unanimously nominated for the office of Prothonotary.

Andrew Gregg, not wanting to be a candidate, in opposition to Mr. Grenoble, a wounder soldier for the office of Recorder, also resigned. Which was accepted. And the Committee deemed it not expedient to nominate a candidate for said office.

SECRETARY.

For the REPUBLICAN.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

The Republican spirit of Harris Township, manifested its earnestness and loyalty in the cause, by the gathering of a large Republican Meeting at Boalsburg on Saturday evening last. At 7 o'clock the Academy building was well filled, with an intelligent audience, composed of people from the country and the town, and among whom was a good sprinkling of ladies whose presence is always welcome at a Republican Meeting, and always leads an interest and dignity to every assemblage they honor with it. The Meeting was called to order by Samuel Stover Esq., and the following organization effected: President, Christian Dale, Vice Presidents, John Foster and Jesse Morgan, and Secretary Henry Keller, Jno. G. Love Esq., was then called upon to address the meeting, which he did in a most fluent, eloquent and able manner,. He exposed the hypocracy of the democracy in taking Greeley, and the motive and true cause of the sorehead Republicans in forming their league with the Democracy in order to get up "anything to beat Grant". He showed the prosperous condition of our country, the reduction of taxation, and rapid payment of the national debt under General Grants Administration, and that his re-election was the only safe course for the american people to pursue, in order to continue their present prosperity and secure the practical results of the war. In short his speech was a good one, and was well received. A. G. Furst Esq., was then called for who followed in one of his happiest efforts. He discussed the issues at length, in a full and clear manner, interspersing his argument with a series of pointed anecdotes that excited the mirth of the audience, and made good hits on the mongrel ticket and party. Prof. D. H. Hastings was called upon for a speech, but on account of the evening being well spent, declined, and moved that the meeting adjourn. Thanks were then tendered the speakers and the meeting adjourned, every body feeling well and determined to work for the whole state and national ticket. Harris will give a good report of herself in October.

H. KELLER,
Secretary.

IF your hands are beginning to get rough and chap they can be cured at once by the use of Cocoa-camphorine.

IF you want an honest and an able man in the Legis Lature, vote for J. G. Kurtz.

FOR Coughs there is nothing equal to Green's compound syrup of Tar.

DEMOCRATS

Who detest the candidacy of Horace Greeley owe the present condition of affairs to Charles R. Buckalew more than to any one hundred Democrats in Pennsylvania. The sale of the party was an issue in the Reading convention. Wallace was bitterly opposed to the sale, and Cass embodied the opposition. We all know the result. Cass was defeated by the money of the Reading railroad company. Votes enough were purchased by Gowen to nominate Buckalew and the influence of Buckalew was thrown in favor of the sell-out to Greeley and M'Clure and Forney.

Certain distinguished Democrats of Harrisburg were frantic at this open treason to the party. Such of them as were in earnest remained in opposition to the Chappaquack arrangement, and they are now either for O'Conor or Grant. Others who made loud threats have mildly sat down to feast on Crow. It is a matter we have very little to do with. But the determination of a large number of Democrats who did not approve of the visit of Buckalew and Greeley to Niagara Falls to save the remnant of the rebellion, not then destroyed, are determined to punish Buckalew for this treason to his country, and, at the same time, to get even with his later betrayal of his party, to one of his rebel-visiting confreres—to wit, Mr. Horace Greeley. —'Telegragh'.

THE Charlestown Courier publishes useful knowledge about the "want of vitality" That disease is very prevalent. Almost half of the voting population of North Carolina found they had it grievously. A great organization just went under in Vermont from the same sickness, and suffered similarly in Maine. It is epidemic in Pennsylvania and we never see a Liberal Democrat in our streets who does not show the worst symptoms. The epidemic is so bad here that the worst consequences are to be apprehended in October and November. Several doctors have been called in, and many consultations held. They agree that it is a sort of murrain among the disaffected and disappointed, and have prescribed two doses in the next two months. If a cure is not effected then the patient will be handed over.

MR. BUCKALEW urges his own election as an apostle of reform. It is a fact that the State debt has always been increased by Democratic administrations, and that this debt has been steadily decreased for years by Republicans. What reform could Mr. Buckalew achieve over this, even conceding him the desire and such aid as he is likely to have?

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Centre County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

"This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R,, Burlington, Iowa. no-28-4-mo.

MERCHANTS in need of Drugs and Medicines should call at Green's Drug Store before sending off their orders and thereby save time and money.

FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale, stock, good-will and fixtures of Harness Shop and House Furnishing Goods of his establishment, No. 45, Main St., Lock Haven, Pa., one of the best business points west of Phila. for the trade. I am not a harness maker, and wish to give my attention to some other business. This is a rare chance, seldom offered, being one of the best business stands in the city, and centrally located. Stock will be reduced eight hundred dollars if desired by the purchaser.

J. CONKLIN,
35-1m. Lock Haven, Pa.

VOTE for Levi A. Miller for Sheriff, if you would elevate labor and vindicate the RIGHTS OF MAN.

GRANT, WILSON AND HARTRANFT CLUB.—Let it be positively undestood that the Grant, Wilson and Hartranft Club meets regularly, every Saturday evening, at the WIGWAM, precisely at 8 o'clock. The Executive Committee has arranged a programme for the series of meetings during the campaign, that can't help but interest, entertain and instruct. So, let the citizens flock to the Wigwam on each Saturday evening, from this time until after the Presidential election, where the political canvass will be discussed and defined by able speakers.

DIED.

On the 8th inst., at Milesburg, Mahlon, aged 15 months, son of William C. and Annie L. Wilkie.

☞BY ONE OF THE LEADING PHYSICIANS of Philadelphia city.—A careful examination of mortuary statistics establishes the fact that one adult person out of every six dies of consumption, and so alarmingly is this disease gaining the ascendancy over all other ills to which flesh is heir, that its approach to one's immediate circle is regarded with perfect horror. If you will carefully examine the records of Materia Medica you will invariably discover that the general want of success in treating diseases has not been a deficiency of pathological knowledge of the functions affected, but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathede affections.

This want has at last been met in the Bitter Wine of Iron, prepared by the celebrated Dr. E. F. Kunkle, No 259 North Ninth street, Philadelphia. This excellent compound can be taken by persons with the most delicate stomach without any debilitating effect always giving strength and largely increasing the nervous energy of the patient. In all cases of pulmonary complaints it is admirably adapted to relieve the severity of the symptoms in the advanced stages of the disease, or to arrest it in its incipiency. If you want something that will give you strength, a good appetite, build up your constitution, and in place of moroseness and a lack of energy, give you a brisk and vigorous feeling, try Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It has already received the meed of praise from thousands who have tested its virtues, and for many years maintained its reputation with unfaded popularity.

Price $1 per bottle. E. F. KUNKEL, Sole Proprietor, No. 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia.
